

NRD New York Mission:

Recruit the best men and women for America's Navy in accordance with the policies and directives of Commander Navy Recruiting Region EAST and Navy Recruiting Command.

NRD New York Vision:

A teamwork-centered and mission-focused group of Military Personnel and Civilian Staff efficiently working to proactively achieve all mission goals while maintaining the utmost sense of integrity and professionalism.

NRC Command Philosophy:

B-e R-e-a-d-y

Building tomorrow's future today.
Embody our core values.
Recruit America's finest!
Earn it and keep it.
Always maintain your integrity.
Dedicated to command, mission and family.
You matter!

NRD New York Command Philosophy:

1. Mission Excellence with Integrity Intact
 - a. We measure ourselves against the standard, not other commands
 - b. By the book. Pre-coordinate deviations if necessary
 - c. Do the right thing, even when no one is watching
2. Presence with a Purpose
 - a. Develop a plan – Execute the Plan - Assess the Outcome
 - b. Don't waste your time, your people's time and your family's time
 - c. Proactively avoid Self-Induced Emergencies
3. Formal Communications
 - a. Clearly define the mission, the tools available and known obstacles
 - b. Speak up when something is wrong with a process
 - c. Forceful Backup - EVERYONE has a voice

Commanding Officer's Expectations:

- Set the highest of personal and professional standards and have the courage to step forward and correct those who do not meet the mark.
- Aggressively pursue professional development – prepare yourself for this career and the career to follow.
- Treat everyone inside and outside the Command with dignity and respect.

C. M. Young